Kirkstall Festival 9th July

Kirkstall Festival is on Saturday 9th July, and the theme is "Kirkstall Carnival". So think colour, pom poms and any other joyful decoration to wear, play or carry. We will make some of these in school (thanks to donations of recycling to use). However, we would really like families to get involved too. If you would like to join us at Kirkstall Festival, we would love our families to get really creative with costumes etc and join us. The parade assembles on Hesketh Road at 10.30am on the day and the duration is about 40 minutes at a very steady pace, going up Park Mount, down Station Parade, turning right up Morris Lane and then left down Abbey Walk, turning left onto the main A65, over the road into the abbey grounds. Parents should walk with their children.

Year 3 & Year 4 production "The Man Cub"

Year 3 and Year 4 proudly present their school production "The Man Cub". You can purchase tickets for this event via School Spider at a cost of £1.00 each. The performances will take place in the Church Hall on :-
